REPUBLICAN PAPER MAKES A SERIOUS CHARGE.

The News has just received a copy of The Winter Park Post, a republican newspaper published at Winter Park, which plans soon to enter the daily field. If the edition which comes to hand is an indication of the future policy and plans of this publication we predict for it some rocky sledding.

The mast-head bears the name of J. H. Wendler, "president and general manager." It is a 24-page, 6-column paper, filled with advertising, plate matter and miscellany. The leading editorial is on a local issue of bonding, but the second is headed "Trammell vs. Newberry," in which charges are made that even in politics should not go unchallenged. Referring to Mr. Trammell's speech in the senate in which he said that the safety of the American people rests only in the safety "and security of the ballot box," the Post says "Does Mr. Trammell mean to say for one moment that any man today holding office in Florida, among the major offices, is holding it by the will of the people of Florida freely and honestly expressed? For a machine politician and one belonging to such a damnable rotten machine as the democratic machine of Florida, one that is so obnoxious that even democrats themselves are sick and disgusted with it, Trammell showed poor taste in attacking a man of the Newberry type."

After commending the fairness of the election laws of the state The Post makes charges that, to our mind, are worthy of grand jury investigation with the editor of The Post as star witness to verify his assertions. It says:

Let us take the last election, in the case of the presidential electors. In Orange county, the ballots were prepared so that all the democrats were first on the list, and in order that the democratic voters may know who to vote for. Now mind you, they didn't even have to know up to the day of election, that there was to be any election. If they had to do was to come to the polls and the word was passed out to vote for the first six on the list. No mental test was required, no memoranda was needed, they were informed where their candidates were located on the ballot and all they had to do was to mark the first six as instructed.

Now had the next six been Republican and the following six Socialists and the next six Prohibitionists and so on, all would have been fair enough, but after the first six democratic electors had been placed at the head of the column all the other parties candidates were scrambled up like a bunch of eggs, and it was up to the voter to pick them out.

Not satisfied with this, the grossest insults were heaped on any one who might possibly be a Republican voter and in many instances no sooner had they entered the booth, than their pockets were searched to see if perchance they might have a scrap of paper bearing the names of some Republican candidate. Some did and as a result in the neighborhood of 25 white men were arrested just because they had an old card in their pocket with the names of some candidate on it, and Lord only knows if any of these victims ever knew that they had the card in their pockets. But the question arises, what business did any one have to approach that booth after the voter went into it. The law distinctly provides that the ballot shall be secret and no man has a right to approach that booth when once the voter enters it, so here again is the case where the application of the law does not fit the letter. This sort of a thing has been going on in Florida for years and years, yet right here in the first precinct of Orlando where all this happened, the vote was so overwhelmingly Republican that the ballot boxes and tally sheets suddenly disappeared and were lost (?) for three days and then when they did show up, why of course the first precinct went democratic.

This sort of thing has been going on for years in Florida and every man holding office in the State today secured his office by the applications of such tactics, the lowest, rottenest form of political knavery, beside which the spending of a few dollars sinks into insignificance, and still Mr. Trammell talks of the purity of the ballot and none knows better than he that were the free and unfettered choice of the people expressed at the polls, he Trammell, would be sitting on a soap box in Lakeland whittling a stick and he would do about as much good there as he does in Washington.

HOW THE TRUST FIGHTS.

The News in receiving some very elaborate propaganda from the National Fertilizer Association in its efforts to create sentiment against the government's acceptance of Mr. Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals. It makes the point that only a small part of the farmer's fertilizer bill would be affected by the operation of the big nitrate plant as only four per cent. of the products are contained in commercial fertilizer.

"Obviously," says the bulletin, "no matter how cheaply the Muscle Shoals plant could make sulphate of ammonia it could not greatly reduce the cost of commercial fertilizer."

Then, what in Sam Hill is the fertilizer trust kicking about?

When last seen business was still "turning the corner."

Some men profess a desire to die poor. And some men are truthful.

A confirmed debtor soon decides that the first hundred arrears are the hardest.

Finding stills is almost as difficult as looking for hay in a haystack.

When a man starts singing his own praises it's pretty sure to be a solo.

The way some families keep up a front imposes a great strain on the shops they deal with.

When you see silk-clad ankles in weather like this, you wonder whether she is trying to catch a husband or pneumonia.

The sample we've seen of 1922 looks pretty good. Ship the whole consignment; we'll take it.

Too many people the world over think patriotism consists in throwing brick-bats at an alien.

"Somt art is nude" is the doctrine that artists impart, but movie makers seem to think that "All nude is art."

When a great nation starts out to lift up weaker peoples, it usually compromises by holding them down.

"There is no evil in the modern skirt," says a writer. No. The modern skirt would hardly hold it.

The man chiefly responsible for the present rate of foreign exchange was the inventor of the printing press.

Quite often the evidence that blooms in the attorney's imagination, tra-la-la, has something to do with the case.

Heed the Danger Signals!

If we are not "fit as a fiddle" in the morning; if we don't feel better than when we went to bed; if our breath is offensive and we have that bad taste in the mouth, Nature has set the danger signals for us and we cannot afford to neglect the warning that she gives.

Probably eighty per cent of all diseases originate in the digestive organs, so it is evident that if we have stomach trouble, however slight, we are foolish indeed if we do not take prompt steps to correct it.

Stomach trouble is almost always followed by a complication of diseases. One of the first being an overworked liver, with all the symptoms of biliousness, followed in turn by headaches, coated tongue, dizzy spells, pain in the back, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms.

Sooner or later the kidneys will become involved and that is just why these danger signals should be heeded in time. A wise man puts out the fire before there is too much destruction. The same theory should apply to stomach trouble.

The American people have learned that Tanlac probably provides the surest, safest and quickest remedy for all such troubles, and millions upon millions have taken it with the most astonishing results.

That is the reason for the phenomenal success of Tanlac and that is why it is proclaimed the world's Greatest Tonic.

Tanlac is sold in Palatka by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co., and all leading druggists everywhere.
